OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 19 February 1964

1. [ ] Peggy MacDonald in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson (Wash.) telephoned asking that she be furnished with the name of our representative [ ] This was furnished to her.

2. [ ] Talked with Walter Besterman, House Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee, concerning the possibility of a bill [ ], and whether it made any difference whether the Agency or Navy sponsored him since he was in fact employed on a full-time basis with Navy. Besterman indicated little concern which Agency sponsored but suggested that in view of recent happenings with the Chairman of the Subcommittee it might be better to work this through the Senate side initially.

3. [ ] Talked with Mrs. E. Irene Neese, in the office of Congressman Thaddeus J. Dulski (D., N.Y.), in connection with Dulski's letter to me of 17 February enclosing a letter from a constituent regarding the recent Drew Pearson column. I explained to Mrs. Neese that officially the Agency was not in a position to comment on press articles concerning the Agency. She seemed to understand our problem and as a partial solution I referred her to Senator Dodd's recent speech and she thought she would be able to work up an appropriate letter.

4. [ ] Talked with Mr. Sewall in the office of Representative Charles E. Bennett to confirm arrangements for tomorrow morning when Mr. Warner will pick up the Congressman at 8:30 to bring him out to the Broyhill Building to speak before the Mid-Career Course.

Provided for Mr. Fred Mesmer, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, a series of maps on North Africa and Southeast Asia for Committee use on pending legislation.

25X1 6. [ ] Discussed with Mary Ellen McFarren, Case Worker, office of Senator Jacob J. Javits (R., N. Y.), the letter of 23 January 1964 to the Senator from Alexander I. Rorke, Sr., which was forwarded to us on 17 February 1964. Mrs. McFarren indicated her understanding of the Agency's inability to answer such a letter and indicated that she could handle the matter without further response from the Agency. 25X1
